

The "fairness doctrine" should return, also limits to ownership of radio and television stations in same market area. Voice tracking needs to be looked at. Jobs for radio broadcast personalities should be brought back, along with the "Firstclass radio telephone". This will restimulate local economies, and place more responsible "local" responsibilities to the community broadcaster.